Eulogy: Kevin Slade

Poems: A Life Well lived - Lewis Slade

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.
A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure

Song for reflection: ‘Memories and Dreams” Slim Dusty

Scripture: The 23rd Psalm- read by Olivia

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul.
he leads me in right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil;
for you are with me; your rod and staff – they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long.

Commendation

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen

Final Tribute: In Loving Memory

She never looked for praises she was never one to boast she just went on quietly working For the ones she loved the most.

Her dreams were seldom spoken
Her wants were very few
And most of the time her worries Went unspoken, too.

She was there...a firm foundation through all our storms of life A sturdy hand to hold on to In times of stress and strife.

Let's think of her as living In the hearts of those she touched For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much
