Hanwood Girl Wed

Lynne Kelly borrowed her mother's emerald pendant to wear at her wedding last Saturday afternoon at the Sacred Heart Church, Griffith.

Lynne Fay is the twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelly of Glenrock, Hanwood.

The bridegroom is Barry John, only son of the late Mr. A. H. Hall of Mudgee and Mrs. K. Hall of Epping Sydney.

The bride's gown of crystal white sculptured nylon chiffon had a full-length skirt pleated at the back with a folded bell-shaped front skirt.

The folds continued on to the short-sleeved bodice, flowing into a wide, boat-shaped neckline held at the waist with a flat bow.

A circlet of white satin held the four-tiered elbowlength tulle veil, one layer of which was the palest pink.

The bride's bouquet was a spray of white gladioli.

TWO BRIDESMAIDS

Joy Kelly, the bride's twin sister, and Marlene O'Meara were bridesmaids.

Their dresses of pure silk offbeat green taffeta were short-skirted copies of the bridal gown.

The maids each wore one beige silk rose as head dress and carried an apricot gladioli bouquet.

Barry Duffin of Rydalmere, Sydney, was best man. The bride's brother, Owen Kelly, was groomsman.

C.W.A. RECEPTION

A reception for 96 guests was held at the C.W.A. Rooms. Mrs. Kelly chose a teal green lightweight wool dress with a softy gored skirt and a white marabou pillbox hat.

Mrs. Hall wore a mint green silk suit with elbowlength sleeves and a tiny hat of beige satin bows and veiling.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who will make their home at North Epping, are honey-mooning at Surfers' Paradise.

For her travelling outfit the bride chose a moss green collarless linen suit fastened with white buttons.

Her hat was a bone whimsy finished with a Dior bow and she added black patent leather shoes and hand bag.

Mr. Barry Greig sang at the church, with Mrs. Morgan at the organ.
